

Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies

Degree Offered	B.A. Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies	B.A. Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies
Concentrations	East European Studies or Eurasian concentration	Russian Studies concentration
Prerequisites <small>for entering the major</small>	2 semesters of the first-year sequence in East European or Eurasian language, or equivalent	RUSS 140, 142, 145, or S140 or equivalent
Requirements	11 term courses	12 term courses
	Third year of an East European or Eurasian language, or equivalent; students that place out of language courses may substitute with approved content courses	RUSS 150 and 151, or equivalent; students that place out of language courses may substitute with approved content courses
	2 courses in Russian, East European, or Eurasian history	2 courses in Russian, East European, or Eurasian history
	1 RSEE-area focused course in social sciences	1 RSEE-area focused course in social sciences
	1 course in RSEE literature or culture	1 course in RSEE literature or culture
	Electives in consultation with DUS	Electives in consultation with DUS
Senior Requirements	Senior Essay (RSEE 490 or 491; or by petition, a yearlong essay, in which case the second term counts as a 12th course)	Senior Essay (RSEE 490 or 491; or by petition, a yearlong essay, in which case the second term counts as a 13th course)
Substitutions	Advanced courses in other departments (HIST, GLBL, PLSC etc.) with DUS permission	Advanced courses in other departments (HIST, GLBL, PLSC etc.) with DUS permission