Deadline Reminder for Preference Selection

Dear Yale College Student,

As a reminder, Preference Selection sites will close at 5 p.m. (ET) today for the following courses:

- First-year seminars and Directed Studies
- Language-instruction courses in Chinese, French, German, and Japanese
- Some Chemistry, Mathematics, and English courses

If you are interested in taking any courses using Preference Selection, see the Yale College Courses that Use Preference Selection & Courses with Early Admission Processes webpage for specific courses and links to relevant Preference Selection sites. For courses not included in Preference Selection, registration begins on August 29 for new students and Add/Drop opens for all students on August 31. See the University Registrar’s Office Registration Website for a calendar of important dates and more information about the registration process.

Sincerely,

University Registrar's Office
