Add/Drop Period is Open

Dear Yale College Student,

Add/drop period has begun and your registration worksheet is now open in Yale Course Search (YCS) for you to make adjustments to your spring schedule. Registration worksheets will remain open for adjustments until the end of add/drop period at 5:00 p.m. (ET), Monday, January 23.

Reminders

- Automated waitlisting ends at 5:00 p.m. (ET), Friday, January 13. After this time, you will not be able to add yourself to an automated waitlist in YCS, but you may enroll in the course if a seat becomes available during the add/drop period. There will be no email notifications of vacant seats.
- You are enrolled in a course if there is a black checkmark next to it on your registration worksheet.
- Enrollment in professional school courses requires the additional submission of a Request to Enroll in Professional School Course form. If the request is approved, the University Registrar’s Office will apply the appropriate course credit to your schedule.
- You should only place courses on your registration worksheet with the intent to enroll.
- You must enroll in at least three course credits and no more than five-and-a-half course credits per academic regulations.
- Some new courses were added to Yale Course Search after registration closed. Use this link to view these additional courses.

Resources

- Additional course enrollment information and instructions can be found on the University Registrar’s Office registration website. See also at the website, links to Registrar’s Office Hours for add/drop related questions.
● Yale Hub has information and resources to assist you during your time at Yale.

Best wishes for the spring term,
