Seats Available in Some First-year Seminars

Dear Student,

According to our records, you applied for a first-year seminar through the Preference Selection lottery, but you did not receive a spot in one of your top selections. We are writing to let you know that limited spaces may be available in the following first-year seminars. You may request admission to enroll directly from the instructor when registration opens for the Class of 2027 on Monday, August 28, at 2:30 pm. For instructions on how to do so, click here.
