Graduation Information for Fall Completers

Dear Yale College Student,

Our records show that you will complete your Yale College studies at the end of the fall 2023 term. Please note that students must petition the Committee on Honors and Academic Standing if they wish their final term of enrollment to be a fall term.

This message outlines how our office will help you receive your degree.

In January 2024, the University Registrar’s Office will review your Yale Degree Audit. If we determine you have fulfilled the requirements for the bachelor's degree, we will add a note to your official Yale College transcript that indicates you have “Qualified for the Bachelor's Degree” and the date we made the determination.

Yale College confers degrees once a year at May Commencement. If you need to prove before then that you have fulfilled the requirements for the bachelor’s degree, you can use an official transcript. A letter from our office is also available to explain the conferral process.

If you have fulfilled the requirements, your Yale College degree will be conferred at the May 2024 Commencement ceremony. If you have already “walked” at the prior year’s Commencement, you may not attend the ceremony again. In order to have your diploma mailed to you, use the Yale Hub to enter a diploma mailing address (diplomas are usually mailed within six weeks after Commencement). Shortly after Commencement, we will update your official transcript to show the date your degree was conferred.

Although your graduation date will be May 2024, you may affiliate yourself with another Yale class for purposes of reunions and alumni relations. Contact the Yale Alumni Association if you wish to be included with a class other than 2024. Note that class affiliation changes can only be requested after Commencement in May.
The Yale College Dean’s Office has created a page on the Yale College website. The Fall-Term Degree Completion webpage offers information for undergraduates who will complete their degree requirements at the end of a fall term.

Sincerely,

University Registrar’s Office
