Deadline for Intent to Submit Dissertation

Dear Chris,

Thursday, February 15 at 5:00 p.m. ET is the deadline to notify your department that you are intending to submit your dissertation in March to receive your Ph.D. in May.¹ Email your department to declare your intention. When you notify the department, they will discuss the steps necessary to set up the Online Notification of Readers (ONOR) form prior to the dissertation submission deadline. ONOR must be set up prior to submitting your dissertation. Note that we have moved to a fully online dissertation submission process. No printed dissertation is required. For more information regarding the dissertation submission process go to the dissertation submission page on the University Registrar's website.

Declaring your intention does not obligate you to submit your dissertation. If you choose not to submit your dissertation in March, notify your department and the ONOR will be withdrawn. You will remain eligible to submit your dissertation in a future term, but you must declare your intention prior to submitting your dissertation.

¹ If you will not be submitting your dissertation this spring, you may disregard this message.

Sincerely,
