Regarding Fall 2024 Directed Studies or Individual Studies Courses

Dear Graduate Student,

If you plan to register for a directed or individual studies course for which you will be requesting a customized course title, you need to need to follow the instructions found here.

This is a two-step process:

1. Submit the Individual Study Course Information form found on the YURO website or on Yale Hub. If approved, your department administrator will provide you with the approved title and CRN (course record number) via return email.
2. Add the course to your schedule using the CRN provided. You will not be registered for the course without completing this process. This can be done during registration or the add/drop period.

Best wishes,
