Yale Course Search Will Open Monday, March 24 for Fall 2025 & Spring 2026

Dear Colleagues,

Yale Course Search (YCS) will open with preliminary course listings for the fall 2025 and spring 2026 terms on Monday, March 24.

- All new course proposals, submitted by March 3 for CSC review, will be available for offering before YCS opens.
- YCS will update daily, through registration and even through the summer, as you continue to add to your offerings of existing and new courses.
- Courses offered after registration closes on May 16 will be identified in YCS so that students can easily find them when add/drop period opens in August.
- Canvas sites for fall 2025 will open March 3. Faculty will be able to update their Canvas sites immediately, however students will not be able to access Canvas until YCS opens.
- All course offerings must carry 4-digit course numbers, even cross-listed numbers.
- For GSAS and YC registration dates, refer to the registration website.

Sincerely,
