Responsible Conduct and Research Reminder

Dear Graduate Student,

All graduate students and researchers are required to complete a Responsible Conduct and Research (RCR) module to continue as active students at Yale University. To access the RCR module, go to the Academics tab in Yale Hub, and click the "Responsible Conduct and Research" link.

You currently have a hold which will prevent you from registering. Once you complete the RCR module, the hold will be removed.

Sincerely,

University Registrar's Office
