Evaluate Your Spring Term Courses Now

Dear Student,

Yale College Online Course Evaluation (OCE) is now open. You will be able to evaluate your courses until Saturday, May 31.

Course evaluations are important to your instructors and to Yale College for the improvement of teaching. They are also important to other undergraduates, who will be able to view responses to select questions as indicated in the evaluation system.

- The information you provide is anonymous.
- Only Yale College courses with an enrollment of five or more students and GSAS courses with an enrollment of four or more are eligible for online evaluation.
- Once you have completed (or actively declined) an evaluation, you may view your grade on Yale Hub. During the evaluation period, Yale Hub will direct you to OCE for any course eligible for evaluation.
- Grades submitted for courses ineligible to be evaluated in OCE can be viewed in Yale Hub immediately.
- Grades for the spring term are due on May 9 for all graduating Yale College students and grades are due May 14 for continuing Yale College students.

Please complete your evaluations at your earliest convenience. For more information, refer to the OCE home page.

Sincerely,

University Registrar's Office
